News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Sometime last Summer we missed a few issues of this column because of a help problem in our plant and after missing a few we just never could seem to get started again.

But we have probably had enough vacation now and feel that we should start this little corner up again for what ever value to our readers it might be.

After our editorial last week we feel that we can't ask our readers to assume their responsibilities in our society without meeting our own obligations — this column is intended to help in that direction.

This paper, like all newspapers, appreciates having letters from our readers — whether agreeing or disagreeing with us. All we ask is that they be signed. We will withhold the name on request but must ask that they be signed. In the past we have received several letters that the writer has either not thought enough of what they had to say or else did not have the courage to put their name on it. We treat these letters just like we do all the rest of the junk mail we get each day, it goes into the waste basket.

The nation's news media deserves a great deal of credit for the fine job they did during that tragic week end two weeks ago. The television industry should receive a special word of thanks because of the many sacrifices they made to give the coverage that they did. They not only gave up all their revenue during the three and one-half days but also did a tremendous job of covering the events as they happened, considering the very limited news staff that they have.

All of the news media did an excellent job covering all of the many facets of the assassination of President Kennedy, trying to give the public the coverage that they thought they deserved (and also beat their competitors). Looking back, you can see that in some ways they might have over done some of it. Oswald might still be alive today to face trial if there had been a little less coverage.

The American public can be very generous when some event arouses enough concern in them as shown by their donations to the J. D. Tippitt family, whose father was killed following the assassination. The pity of it is that there are an untold number of families around the country who are fatherless because of a policeman dying in the line of duty and no one seems to care. I am sure that this must hurt some of these families.

I am sure that the report that Dallas has no pension plan or any form of financial help for families whose husbands and/or father dies while working for the police department. This report was untrue — the civil-service pension system covering the Dallas Police Department personnel provides $232 a month to Mrs. Tippitt toward her support and that of her children.

While this is not a great deal of money it does show that Dallas has some concern.

from Paint Creek, Jayton, McCaulley, Rotan, Stamford, Kermit and Aspermont. Entered in the girls division will be Rotan, Jayton, Aspermont, Lueders, Paint Creek, Coleman and one other team that had not been named Tuesday.

At 5:00 p.m. the Jayton boys will meet the McCaulley boys and at 6:30 the Lueders girls will play Paint Creek. The Hamlin and Rotan girls teams will square off at 7:45 and the boys from Hamlin will meet the boys from Paint Creek at 9 p.m., in the two feature matches. The Rotan and Stamford boys teams will meet in their first round match at 1:00 p.m. Friday.

The girls championship will be decided at 8 p.m. Saturday night and the boys championship at 9:30.

The Piperettes will be defending their championship from last year and Stamford was last year's boys winners.

Farm Labor Day Set for Monday In Courthouse

A County wide Farm Labor Day will be held in Anson Monday, Dec. 9, from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. in the office of the Texas Employment Commission on the second floor of the courthouse, according to Kenneth Carman farm placement representative of the Texas Placement Commission.

The purpose of this farm labor day is to bring together farmers and ranchers who need workers and the farm and ranch hands who want a job.

Mr. Carman will accept orders from anyone needing a farm or ranch hand and will accept applications from all workers seeking this type of work.

This is an effort of the Texas Employment Commission to make sure all local workers are utilized in meeting the area labor demands.

Jones County Seal Campaign Running Behind Schedule

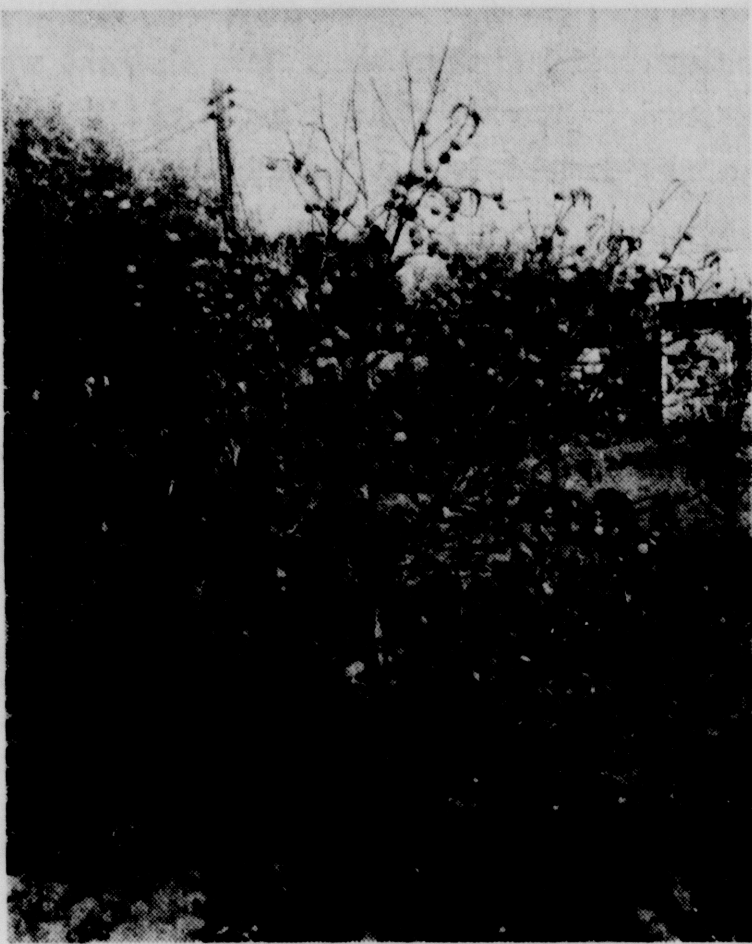

Jones County's 1963 Christmas Seal Campaign is running behind last year's results in returns so far, Mrs. H. H. Corley, Campaign chairman, reported today.

"The campaign still has a way to go," Mrs. Corley said, "and we are earnestly hoping that the people of this County, who have supported our work so loyally in the past, will find time in the next few days to answer their Christmas Seal appeals. With so much remaining to be done in the struggle to wipe out TB and to control other respiratory diseases, we feel confident that every family will want to renew its annual Christmas Seal contribution which helps make this work possible."

The Jones County Tuberculosis Association, Mrs. Corley added, is looking forward to an intensification of its work in the field of prevention, detection and patient care in the respiratory diseases, ranked by the Public Health Service as number one among disorders in the United States. "To make such a program successful," she said, "the need for funds is greater than ever before."

Total returns to date show $864.75. Total returns this time last year for County $973.30.

Returns for each town: Anson, $166.50; Avoca, 26.00; Hawley, 11.00; Hamlin, 297.50; Lueders, 37.00; Stamford, 326.75; Total $864.75.

PROOF OF "CRAZY MIXED-UP WEATHER"—People are not the only ones that have had difficulty coping with the unusual weather this fall. The above peach tree growing in the orchard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Brown is loaded with peaches that are not ripe yet. The tree normally produces its crop in July or August but this year, the first week in December, the peaches are just beginning to turn. Other trees in the orchard have yielded their fruit in an exceptional manner. One tree had two crops while another had a top crop and later the lower branches produced.

COUNTY ACCEPTS AMARILLO FIRM'S BID FOR TAX SURVEY

Jones County Commission-ers court accepted the bid of McMorries and Co. of Amarillo for a tax valuation survey of the county at a special meeting of the court Tuesday, with the work to be completed in time for the 1964 tax roll.

Bids were as follows: McMorries and Co., Amarillo, $45,900.

Southwestern Appraisal Co., Stamford, $46,750 for the 1964 roll and $42,250 if an extra year is granted.

Dean and Thomas, Midland, $43,500.

No action was taken at the time of the bid opening, the commissioners desiring to weigh the matter before making any contract awards.

Judge Thurman says he is unable to find any record of the county ever having a tax valuation survey.

Representatives of the various taxing agencies of the county — cities and school districts — were invited to attend the meetings when the survey has been discussed and have also been invited to join in the revaluation program.

Judge Leon Thurman said earlier that it was the plan of the county to proceed with the work and make the information available to these other tax bodies on a pro rata basis if they wished.

A check here Tuesday with Mayor John V. Howard Jr. and C. F. Cook, Hamlin Public Schools Superintendent, revealed that neither agency has made any plans to take part in the survey.

The Mayor said that the city discussed the issue, but decided that the city would not receive much benefit because they felt that the valuations here were in good shape.

Cook said that the Board of Trustees have not discussed the county's offer at their board meetings. Neither group was represented at any of the meetings called by the commissioner's court.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER GETS SERIOUS FOR ONCE, BUT PROMISES HE WON'T CONTINUE THAT WAY

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 is in a strictly serious vein this week. Dear editor:

There's time enough for joking later on, but I was just thinking, I wouldn't swap this country for all the rest of the world put together, and you could throw in the planets to boot.

I wouldn't say we don't have a lot of short-comings and I ought to know as I'm an expert on the subject of long years of falling short, but if there's another country on earth where more people — I'm not saying all people — can come closer to doing about what they please, I haven't heard of it.

I was thinking just this past Thanksgiving that the fun of being a citizen of the United States is the fun of being unchecked from day to day. Oh I'll admit we get checked on at income tax paying time, when we run a red light and there's a cop nearby, and in other such situations, but a man in this country can go and come pretty much as he pleases, if he can buy the gas to do it on, or on foot, if that's the way he's traveling. The point is, nobody stops you. Nor do they make you move, if you want to stop. This latter is especially appealing to me, because I've been at a stop right here on this Johnson grass farm for years, and intend to stay that way.

This isn't to say we're so well off we can be sorry for other countries, it's only to say that of all the different sections of the world trying to organize things so the individual can enjoy living, we've hit on the system that allows the widest margin, although there are pockets we can't brag about and there are conditions that ought to be ironed out, so long as I'm not flattened in the process.

At any rate, I'll get back to my regular vein next week, but this week I felt serious, for a reason anybody knows.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

DEC. 8 DESIGNATED 'SAFETY SUNDAY IN TEXAS'--CONNALLY

AUSTIN — Officials of the Texas Safety Association today praised Texas Governor John Connally for his proclamation designating Dec. 8, 1963, "Safety Sunday in Texas."

"The Governor's interest in the welfare of the people of Texas is evidenced by this action," TSA President Quincy V. Tuma of Houston, said. "The purpose of 'Safety Sunday' is to focus public attention on the moral obligation and responsibilities of vehicle drivers to protect their own lives and the lives of others."

In proclaiming "Safety Sunday," Governor Connally said, "It is essential that every Texas driver realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends as well as other drivers and passengers is a matter of moral responsibility, and that useless infliction of human injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift-life itself."

He noted that 2,421 persons were killed and 144,943 were injured on Texas streets and highways in 1962 despite an intensive and continuing campaign by both official State agencies and citizen-support groups.

"The experience of the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Governor's Office, the Texas Safety Association, local safety councils and thousands of law enforcement officials indicates that the solution to this critical problem lies in the hands of the individual driver," the Governor explained.

He urged all citizens to join in a united effort to awaken the conscience of every driver and further urged the pastors of all churches to remind their members of their personal and moral responsibility "to drive carefully, to obey the traffic laws and to protect the sanctity of human life in our State."

As hundreds of lives are lost each year during the Christmas-New Year holiday season — a season that is dedicated to peace and good will — it is fitting that "Safety Sunday" be set early in December when the various campaigns for holiday safety gets into full swing, Tuma said.

The Texas Safety Association Holiday Safety Campaign will be conducted during the month of December and through the New Year's holiday.

The San Jacinto Monument in Texas is higher than the Washington Monument.

The Carpenter's FRIEND

To build... one must have plans, and plans give exact measurements. The carpenter who makes careful measurements finds that the work is made easier. Careful measuring prevents waste... waste of time and materials. Therefore the measuring device is truly a friend to the carpenter.

The church wants to be your friend, and help you to a easier and better way of life. The Bible clearly gives us a way to measure life. Through many centuries man has found no better rules than those given in the Bible.

Attend church and receive the friendly welcome that awaits you.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Only time will tell how effective President Johnson's effort will be in cutting costs in the various government departments will be, but it is encouraging that he has put enough priority on it that much of the short time he has been in office has been spent in this direction.

Any economy move within the government that is to be effective must originate from this office and then will require a great deal of follow-up.

It seems to us that the biggest problem in our government is not the programs it undertakes necessarily but in the waste that seems to go along with them.

The Pipers and the Piperettes will host a three-day basketball tourney here this week end that should offer some real exciting basketball for local fans. Some of the top teams in the area will be vying for the championships.

If you like basketball at all, this will be an opportunity to see plenty of action with play starting after dinner on Thursday and Friday and in the morning on Saturday with continuous play running until 10 or 10:30 at night.

Midwest Electric To Make Cash Refund to Members

For the sixth straight year, Midwest Electric Cooperative will make a cash refund to its membership. Johnnie Ammons, manager of the Roby based cooperative, has announced that checks totaling $115,921.40 were placed in the mail Wednesday the fourth of December.

These checks are going to Midwest members who were receiving service from the Co-Op during the years of 1943, 1944 and 1957.

These refunds are being made under what is known as "The Capital Credits Plan". Under this plan, all "margins" (money taken in above the actual cost of operation) are set up as "emergency reserve funds." These are to finance reconstruction of the Co-Op's electric system in the event it be damaged or destroyed by such natural disasters as ice storms and etc.

These "reserves" are held until margins from later years are sufficient to meet such possible emergencies. The older margins are then returned to the members of the cooperative.

This creates a revolving system which provides the cooperative with its necessary reserve and then systematically returns the money to its owners.

The combined refunds for the past six years totals $403,149.40.

SPEAKER TELLS SCHOOL AND LIONS ABOUT COMMUNICATIONS

Electronic devices that can read your handwriting, change your voice into written words, translate Russian and Chinese into English, memorize all the world's knowledge, or focus a light beam on the moon, are some of the telecommunication marvels now perfected or under development, a Western Union spokesman said here today.

Ernest Pierce, Public relations representative for the telegraph company, described these electronic wonders and others in his talk today before a luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club, and the Student Body of the Hamlin High School. More than 35 Lions and their guests and 260 High School students heard his speech.

Speaking on the subject "From Smoke Signals to Satellites," Mr. Pierce traced the development of the communications industry, and said electronic research is expected to produce a succession of new scientific accomplishments that will startle the world.

"Experts foresee within a matter of years," said Mr. Pierce, "electronic devices that will memorize all the knowledge in the world. In fact, right now, the equivalent of the human memory can be embodied on a piece of glass six inches square."

"Computers are being put to work as language translators. One has been developed that can remember two million Russian words, can translate 1800 words a minute, and has been translating the Russian newspaper Pravda into rough but understandable English for more than two years. The machine is now being put to work on translating French and Chinese."

"Another machine, has been developed that can read ordinary pen or pencil writing with the help of a computer. It will tell you what you wrote even though you can't decipher it yourself."

"Another machine," he said, "you will simply talk and the device will recognize your words, interpret them into digits suitable for transmission and then, at destination, translate the digits back into written language or record them for processing by business machines or computers."

"One of the latest, most significant electronics discoveries is the laser," said Mr. Pierce. "The laser will generate a ray of light so small, and so strong, that it could illuminate a 10 mile area on the moon which is 238,000 miles distant. The laser's light beam could be used as a communications pathway and is expected to play an important role in future space communications."

Mr. Pierce said Western Union foresees an explosive growth in telecommunications in the next ten years.

"In preparation for the handling of this potential, Western Union is pushing ahead with the largest construction program in its history."

"To meet present and future communications needs we are now building, for completion in 1964, a new coast-to-coast microwave system which will increase our present capacity more than ten times."

The appearance of Mr. Pierce was arranged by Loyd Burkhardt, program chairman Lions Club, and Mrs. Everett Gibson, Social Studies Teacher Hamlin High School.

Jury of View To Set Valuation Of Right of Way

A three-man jury of view has been named to handle valuations on eight pieces of property needed for widening the right of way for Highway 277 between Stamford and Anson. County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that group would likely meet Dec. 13 and it is hoped that work can be completed in one day.

Named on the jury were E. M. Connell, Bill Bartlett and Earl Boler, all of Anson.

The eight tracts of land are owned by six individuals. They are: W. W. Young, Vernon Lovorne (two tracts), John Faulkner, Guy Steen (two tracts), Floyd Gordon and R. I. Foster.

Both the county and the property owners have the right to appeal to county court should they find the award of the jury of view unacceptable.

Judge Thurman said that two deeds are yet to be received from the state highway department and one is still out to a property owner.

Highway 277 will become a freeway with separate roads going north and south, as is now the case between Anson and Abilene.

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Sometime last Summer we missed a few issues of this column because of a help problem in our plant and after missing a few we just never could seem to get started again.

But we have probably had enough vacation now and feel that we should start this little corner up again for what ever value to our readers it might be.

After our editorial last week we feel that we can't ask our readers to assume their responsibilities in our society without meeting our own obligations — this column is intended to help in that direction.

This paper, like all newspapers, appreciates having letters from our readers — whether agreeing or disagreeing with us. All we ask is that they be signed. We will withhold the name on request but must ask that they be signed. In the past we have received several letters that the writer has either not thought enough of what they had to say or else did not have the courage to put their name on it. We treat these letters just like we do all the rest of the junk mail we get each day, it goes into the waste basket.

The nation's news media deserves a great deal of credit for the fine job they did during that tragic week end two weeks ago. The television industry should receive a special word of thanks because of the many sacrifices they made to give the coverage that they did. They not only gave up all their revenue during the three and one-half days but also did a tremendous job of covering the events as they happened, considering the very limited news staff that they have.

All of the news media did an excellent job covering all of the many facets of the assassination of President Kennedy, trying to give the public the coverage that they thought they deserved (and also beat their competitors). Looking back, you can see that in some ways they might have over done some of it. Oswald might still be alive today to face trial if there had been a little less coverage.

The American public can be very generous when some event arouses enough concern in them as shown by their donations to the J. D. Tippitt family, whose father was killed following the assassination. The pity of it is that there are an untold number of families around the country who are fatherless because of a policeman dying in the line of duty and no one seems to care. I am sure that this must hurt some of these families.

I am sure that the report that Dallas has no pension plan or any form of financial help for families whose husbands and/or father dies while working for the police department. This report was untrue — the civil-service pension system covering the Dallas Police Department personnel provides $232 a month to Mrs. Tippitt toward her support and that of her children.

While this is not a great deal of money it does show that Dallas has some concern.

The Piperettes will be defending their championship from last year and Stamford was last year's boys winners.

Farm Labor Day Set for Monday In Courthouse

A County wide Farm Labor Day will be held in Anson Monday, Dec. 9, from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. in the office of the Texas Employment Commission on the second floor of the courthouse, according to Kenneth Carman, farm placement representative of the Texas Placement Commission.

The purpose of this farm labor day is to bring together farmers and ranchers who need workers and the farm and ranch hands who want a job.

Mr. Carman will accept orders from anyone needing a farm or ranch hand and will accept applications from all workers seeking this type of work.

This is an effort of the Texas Employment Commission to make sure all local workers are utilized in meeting the area labor demands.

Jones County Seal Campaign Running Behind Schedule

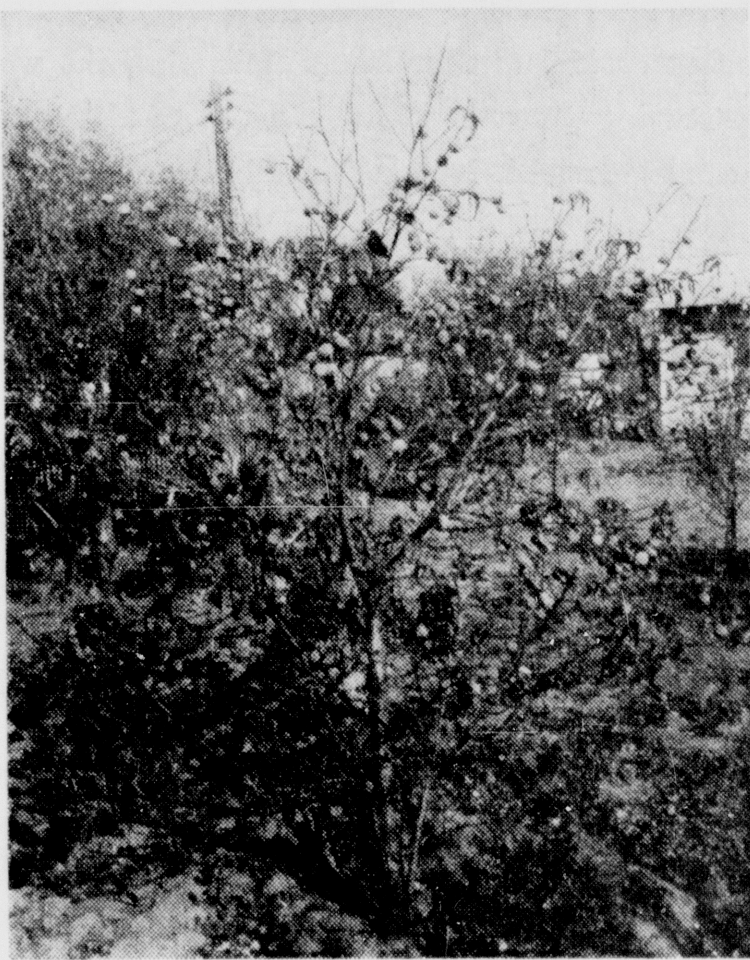

Jones County's 1963 Christmas Seal Campaign is running behind last year's results in returns so far, Mrs. H. H. Corley, Campaign chairman, reported today.

"The campaign still has a way to go," Mrs. Corley said, "and we are earnestly hoping that the people of this County, who have supported our work so loyally in the past, will find time in the next few days to answer their Christmas Seal appeals. With so much remaining to be done in the struggle to wipe out TB and to control other respiratory diseases, we feel confident that every family will want to renew its annual Christmas Seal contribution which helps make this work possible."

The Jones County Tuberculosis Association, Mrs. Corley added, is looking forward to an intensification of its work in the field of prevention, detection and patient care in the respiratory diseases, ranked by the Public Health Service as number one among disabilities in the United States. "To make such a program successful," she said, "the need for funds is greater than ever before."

Total returns to date show $864.75. Total returns this time last year for County $973.30.

Returns for each town: Anson, $166.50; Avoca, 26.00; Hawley, 11.00; Hamlin, 297.50; Lueders, 37.00; Stamford, 326.75; Total $864.75.

PROOF OF "CRAZY MIXED-UP WEATHER"—People are not the only ones that have had difficulty coping with the unusual weather this fall. The above peach tree growing in the orchard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Brown is loaded with peaches that are not ripe yet. The tree normally produces its crop in July or August but this year, the first week in December, the peaches are just beginning to turn. Other trees in the orchard have yielded their fruit in an exceptional manner. One tree had two crops while another had a top crop and later the lower branches produced.

COUNTY ACCEPTS AMARILLO FIRM'S BID FOR TAX SURVEY

Jones County Commissioners court accepted the bid of McMorries and Co. of Amarillo for a tax valuation survey of the county at a special meeting of the court Tuesday, with the work to be completed in time for the 1964 tax roll.

Jim McMorries of the Amarillo firm told the group gathered at a September meeting that not only will a survey equalize tax valuations but often unrendered property or property that is rendered too low will be found in sufficient quantities to furnish enough additional taxes to pay the cost of the survey.

Bids were opened Wednesday, Nov. 27, and ranged from a high of $16,750 to a low of $12,250, with the latter being an alternate proposal with work not to be completed until in time for the 1965 tax roll.

Bids were as follows: McMorries and Co., Amarillo, $145,900. Southwestern Appraisal Co., Stamford, $46,750 for the 1964 roll and $12,250 if an extra year is granted.

Dean and Thomas, Midland, $43,500. No action was taken at the time of the bid opening, the commissioners desiring to weigh the matter before making any contract awards.

Judge Thurman says he is unable to find any record of the county ever having a tax valuation survey.

Representatives of the various taxing agencies of the county — cities and school districts — were invited to attend the meetings when the survey has been discussed and have also been invited to join in the revaluation program.

Judge Leon Thurman said earlier that it was the plan of the county to proceed with the work and make the information available to these other tax bodies on a pro rata basis if they wished.

A check here Tuesday with Mayor John V. Howard Jr. and C. F. Cook, Hamlin Public Schools Superintendent, revealed that neither agency has made any plans to take part in the survey.

The Mayor said that the city discussed the issue, but decided that the city would not receive much benefit because they felt that the valuations here were in good shape.

Cook said that the Board of Trustees have not discussed the county's offer at their board meetings. Neither group was represented at any of the meetings called by the commissioner's court.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER GETS SERIOUS FOR ONCE, BUT PROMISES HE WON'T CONTINUE THAT WAY

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 is in a strictly serious vein this week. Dear editor:

There's time enough for joking later on, but I was just thinking, I wouldn't swap this country for all the rest of the world put together, and you could throw in the planets to boot.

I wouldn't say we don't have a lot of short-comings and I ought to know as I'm an expert on the subject of long years of falling short, but if there's another country on earth where more people — I'm not saying all people — can come closer to doing about what they please, I haven't heard of it.

I was thinking just this past Thanksgiving that the fun of being a citizen of the United States is the fun of being unchecked-on from day to day. Oh I'll admit we get checked on at income tax paying time, when we run a red light and there's a cop nearby, and in other such situations, but a man in this country can go and come pretty much as he pleases, if he can buy the gas to do it on, or on foot, if that's the way he's traveling. The point is, nobody stops you. Nor do they make you move, if you want to stop. This latter is especially appealing to me, because I've been at a stop right here on this Johnson son grass farm for years, and intend to stay that way.

This isn't to say we're so well off we can be sorry for other countries, it's only to say that of all the different sections of the world trying to organize things so the individual can enjoy living, we've hit on the system that allows the widest margin, although there are pockets we can't brag about and there are conditions that ought to be ironed out, so long as I'm not flattened in the process.

At any rate, I'll get back to my regular vein next week, but this week I felt serious, for a reason anybody knows. Yours faithfully, J. A.

DEC. 8 DESIGNATED 'SAFETY SUNDAY IN TEXAS'--CONNALLY

AUSTIN — Officials of the Texas Safety Association today praised Texas Governor John Connally for his proclamation designating Dec. 8, 1963, "Safety Sunday in Texas."

"The Governor's interest in the welfare of the people of Texas is evidenced by this action," TSA President Quincy V. Tuma of Houston, said. "The purpose of 'Safety Sunday' is to focus public attention on the moral obligation and responsibilities of vehicle drivers to protect their own lives and the lives of others."

In proclaiming "Safety Sunday," Governor Connally said, "It is essential that every Texas driver realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends as well as other drivers and passengers is a matter of moral responsibility, and that useless infliction of human injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift-life itself."

He noted that 2,421 persons were killed and 144,943 were injured on Texas streets and highways in 1962 despite an intensive and continuing campaign by both official State agencies and citizen-support groups.

"The experience of the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Governor's Office, the Texas Safety Association, local safety councils and thousands of law enforcement officials indicates that the solution to this critical problem lies in the hands of the individual driver," the Governor explained.

He urged all citizens to join in a united effort to awaken the conscience of every driver and further urged the pastors of all churches to remind their members of their personal and moral responsibility "to drive carefully, to obey the traffic laws and to protect the sanctity of human life in our State."

As hundreds of lives are lost each year during the Christmas-New Year holiday season — a season that is dedicated to peace and good will — it is fitting that "Safety Sunday" be set early in December when the various campaigns for holiday safety gets into full swing, Tuma said.

The Texas Safety Association Holiday Safety Campaign will be conducted during the month of December and through the New Year's holiday.

The San Jacinto Monument in Texas is higher than the Washington Monument.

The Carpenter's FRIEND

To build... one must have plans, and plans give exact measurements. The carpenter who makes careful measurements finds that the work is made easier. Careful measuring prevents waste... waste of time and materials. Therefore the measuring device is truly a friend to the carpenter.

The church wants to be your friend, and help you to a easier and better way of life. The Bible clearly gives us a way to measure life. Through many centuries man has found no better rules than those given in the Bible.

Attend church and receive the friendly welcome that awaits you.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

In a student assembly Nov. 26, Anna Adams was revealed as FFA Sweetheart. A white jacket was presented to Miss Adams who has been an active member for four years.

and served as chapter secretary for two years. Anna will represent the Hamlin FFA Chapter in various contests throughout the year.

Only time will tell how effective President Johnson's effort will be in cutting costs in the various government departments will be, but it is encouraging that he has put enough priority on it that much of the short time he has been in office has been spent in this direction.

Any economy move within the government that is to be effective must originate from this office and then will require a great deal of follow-up.

It seems to us that the biggest problem in our government is not the programs it undertakes necessarily but in the waste that seems to go along with them.

Midwest Electric To Make Cash Refund to Members

For the sixth straight year, Midwest Electric Cooperative will make a cash refund to its membership. Johnnie Ammons, manager of the Roby based cooperative, has announced that checks totaling $115,921.40 were placed in the mail Wednesday the fourth of December.

These checks are going to Midwest members who were receiving service from the Co-Op during the years of 1943, 1944 and 1957.

These refunds are being made under what is known as "The Capital Credits Plan". Under this plan, all "margins" (money taken in above the actual cost of operation) are set up as "emergency reserve funds." These are to finance reconstruction of the Co-Op's electric system in the event it be damaged or destroyed by such natural disasters as ice storms and etc.

These "reserves" are held until margins from later years are sufficient to meet such possible emergencies. The older margins are then returned to the members of the cooperative. This creates a revolving system which provides the cooperative with its necessary reserve and then systematically returns the money to its owners.

The combined refunds for the past six years totals $403,149.40.

A three-man jury of view has been named to handle valuations on eight pieces of property needed for widening the right of way for Highway 277 between Stamford and Anson. County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that group would likely meet Dec. 13 and it is hoped that work can be completed in one day.

Named on the jury were E. M. Connell, Bill Bartlett and Earl Boler, all of Anson.

The eight tracts of land are owned by six individuals. They are: W. W. Young, Vernon Lovvorne (two tracts), John Faulkner, Guy Steen (two tracts), Floyd Gordon and R. I. Foster.

Both the county and the property owners have the right to appeal to county court should they find the award of the jury of view unacceptable. Judge Thurman said that two deeds are yet to be received from the state highway department and one is still out to a property owner.

Highway 277 will become a freeway with separate roads going north and south, as is now the case between Anson and Abilene.
